Greenman, Lacy, Klein, Hinds, Weiser & Heffron

Attorneys At Law

Amber Crothall

Partner

Education

B.A. in English from Santa Clara University

J.D. from Santa Clara University School of Law

Ms. Crothall is a Partner with Greenman, Lacy, Klein, Hinds, Weiser and a certified mediator. Her practice includes real estate and business matters, as well as private mediation. Specific areas include representing buyers and sellers in real estate transactions, drafting and negotiating purchase and sale agreements and leases for residential and commercial properties, contracts related to co-ownership of properties, easement agreements, deeds, and title matters, as well as partition and quiet title actions. She also works with clients in the areas of business entity formation and operations, including drafting of a wide variety of corporate contracts.

Ms. Crothall is a native of Oceanside, CA. She received her B.A. in English from Santa Clara University, and her J.D. from Santa Clara University School of Law. While in law school she worked as a judicial extern in the United States District Court, Northern District of California, for the Honorable Jeremy Fogel. She was also a Research Editor for the Santa Clara University Law Review, and a Public Interest and Social Justice Law Scholar. She worked with the firm Miller, Morton, Caillat & Nevis, LLP in San Jose, California specializing in construction and property law prior to joining GLKHW in 2009.

Ms. Crothall is a certified mediator by the National Conflict Resolution Center. She is a member of the North County Bar Association, served on the North County Bar Association Board of Directors from 2014-2016, and is a Barrister with the Fiorenzo V. Lopardo American Inn of Court. She regularly volunteers with the Bar Association's programs in the community, including the Youth in Court and On My Honor programs, and Law Day free legal clinic. She is an attorney coach for Oceanside High School's mock trial team and was an attorney coach for the California State University San Marcos mock trial team.