ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Michael L. Klein

Retired

Michael Klein is retired from the practice of law, although he continues to serve as "of counsel" for the firm, and provides pro bono legal services in the Oceanside community.

Mr. Klein was admitted to the California state bar in 1978. He co-founded Grey Law, Inc., an organization that provided free legal services to senior citizens in Los Angeles County. He later moved to Oceanside and joined the firm in 1985, where he practiced for over 40 years until his retirement. His practice included bankruptcy, business, real estate, and general civil litigation.

Mr. Klein is extremely active in local community and civic affairs. He coached Little League and Youth Basketball for many years. He was President of the Oceanside Jaycees, Oceanside Pacific Kiwanis Club and its Foundation, Oceanside Boys & Girls Club, Casa de Amparo, and the North San Diego County Bar Association. He was Presiding Officer of the Manufactured Home Fair Practices Commission for the City of Oceanside and has served the Oceanside Yacht Club as its Judge Advocate for 20 years. In 2023, he was the recipient of the "Attorney of the Year" award by the North County Bar Association.

In addition to the practice of law and his community endeavors, Mr. Klein enjoys camping, fishing, basketball, kayaking, sailing, reading, and attending live theater and musical performances.
